To Whom It May Concern:

As of this date, December 19, 2003, I am resigning as a member of the Evergreen Fire Company. This is something I have thoroughly thought out, and it is necessary to make this decision. I do appreciate everything certain members of the company have done for me, and that will never be forgotten. When I joined the company, I was looking forward to helping the community and staying out of trouble. Now, almost 4 years later, the company is flourishing with members, some of whom want to have cliques, and these cliques are tearing apart the camaraderie of the company. I'm not sure where it got mixed up, but I was under the impression that camaraderie is what the fire service is all about. The other reason that I am submitting this resignation is that I do not wish to be a part of an organization where the members fail to comply with a criminal investigation. I find it appalling that there are people involved with the fire company that would rather make waves and point fingers than comply with an investigation to rid the company of a thief. If nobody has anything to hide, then why would a group of people fail to cooperate? This letter is by no means intending to talk bad about the company, nor is it to point fingers; it is only to explain my actions. Enclosed is a Minitor IV pager and charger, and building key. The alphanumeric pager will be returned to the company as soon as the year I paid for has expired. I wish all of you the best.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jason G. Harrold
